Should it be the Chair that we believe has breached this code, another Trustee or Local Governing Body member, such as the Vice Chair will investigate. The Trust has a procedure that must be followed if this Code of Conduct is breached. Please contact the Trust's Governance Officer.

The Marches Academy Trust adopted this Code of Practice on the 21st June 2023. Members, Trustees and Governors will sign and return this form every year. Trustees and Governors can sign the Code at the first full Trustee/Local Governing Body meeting of each school year if they so wish.

The Seven Principles of Public Life outline the ethical standards those working in the public sector are expected to adhere to and apply to anyone who works as a public office-holder.

1. Selflessness

Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.

2. Integrity

Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.

3. Objectivity

Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.

4. Accountability

Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.

5. Openness

Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing.

6. Honesty

Holders of public office should be truthful.

7. Leadership

Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour and treat others with respect. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.
